

Statement of Facts in re of conversation with Confidential Informant

Said informant, on the night of March 22, 1961, informed investigator R. J. Strickland, that two unknown men had appeared in the State of New York at the Barbizon Hotel on the previous Friday, showing identification to the manager of said hotel, which put them in the category of employees of the Dade County Metropolitan Sheriff's office; said unknown persons asking for [REDACTED], subject who was arrested and booked in Dade County for attempting to bribe a police officer the previous Wednesday night. Upon being informed that [REDACTED] had returned, the two subjects then asked for a room in the hotel and waited until [REDACTED] had appeared. [REDACTED], having appeared on the scene, was held in conference with these two subjects and certain propositions were made to same by the two unknown persons appearing, to have his case handled in the Dade County Courts, after it had reached stage of the State's Attorney's office before it had gone into open court. [REDACTED] then contacted a Chicago subject by the name of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] called an attorney in New York and had said attorney, unknown, to talk to [REDACTED]. This attorney then flew to Miami and was staying at the Dupont Plaza Hotel. It is the understanding of this investigator that this attorney spent the better part of an entire day in the State's Attorney [REDACTED] after having arrived in Miami.

This information has been given to Sheriff Tom Kelley, his Chief assistant [REDACTED] Buchanan, who are both in charge of this investigation at this time. Efforts are being made to determine if any known person or persons have flown from the local airport to New York during the period of time previously spoken of on this record.

The source of the information given is from a very reliable and responsible person and there is no reason to believe that this information is wrong.
